AN IRISH CENTENARY.

WITH the heartiest feelings of Fraternal regard we add our congratulations to the many already showered upon the Freemasons of Ireland, who, for some days past, have been celebrating the Centenary of the Dublin Masonic Female Orphan School, and have been actively engaged in securing funds to specially mark so important an event in their Masonic career. The result of the efforts made in this direction has been eminently satisfactory, it being estimated that upwards of £20,000 has been secured in connection with the various movements inaugurated to celebrate the event, while many sources of probable income are still open, with every prospect of large additions being made to the handsome totals of the present. Indeed, it is safe to say that by the time the festivities are ended, and their accounts made up, the Orphan School of our brethren in the Sister Isle will be in a much better position than even its best friends now deem possible, although, as we have said, there is actual evidence in existence to show that something like £20,000 is already available.

One of the principal features arranged in connection with the celebration was a bazaar and fancy fair in the grounds of the Institution at Ball's Bridge, Dublin, for which the most liberal and influential patronage was secured, and to which the Craft of Ireland owes much of the success of which its members are now so justly proud. But for months past arrangements have been in progress and entertainments have been organised with a view of aiding the good cause, which, as we have said, has already reaped a splendid harvest, and may yet receive very much more.

We gather from an interesting work, compiled in connection with the Centenary, by Brother Thomas Stuart, of Lodge 125, that the main object of celebration was to raise a capital fund, the interest of which could be applied to help deserving pupils to qualify themselves for callings and situations which would enable them to secure independence. The school maintains the children until the age of sixteen years; which limit could not be extended without reducing the number of admissions, and providing a costly course of instruction for elder pupils. Our Irish brethren fully recognised the great and lasting advantages to be secured by help judiciously given during the two or three critical years after leaving school, and set themselves to work to render the help possible, but they did not confine their Centenary operations to the carrying out of this one scheme—that they made their first aim, but they also reserved power in promoting the celebrations to complete the Infirmary of the Institution, build a drill hall and day room, and complete some other needful improvements. Let us hope the eminently successful result of their efforts may enable them to carry out all, or nearly all of their wishes.

The brethren who promoted this year's bazaar had before them a record which was magnificent in itself and very hard to beat, for in 1882 a grand bazaar was organised and proved to be the greatest success of its kind ever held in Dublin, no less than £6,601 8s 7d being available on that occasion after all expenses had been paid, which sum was expended in furnishing the then existing home, and freeing it from various responsibilities. But the brethren of to-day were desirous of beating the record, and we have shown how they succeeded. They have not, however, yet exhausted all their efforts, for it is intended to re-open the Bazaar during the summer in Belfast, and a second great success will then be attempted, with, it is to be hoped, equally satisfactory results.

In one respect, at least, this Masonic bazaar has made for itself a reputation which will be associated with it for many a long year—the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Dublin having written a letter in which he warned all true Catholics that they would incur the displeasure of the Church if they in any way associated themselves with the celebration, or even if they attended any of the festivities arranged in connection with it. We believe it was pretty generally believed that the opposition of the Papacy to Freemasonry was quietly dying out, and that no notice would be taken if Catholics chose to join the Order, but this opinion has been shattered, and we must now recognise that there is a real and most severe hatred existing amongst the Papal priests against the Masonic Order. The letter of the Dublin Archbishop, which we append, can hardly have been issued without the knowledge and sanction of the heads of the Romish Church, and it displays such an amount of animus as should at once convince the observer that there is no quarter to be expected in that direction. Happily the fulmination had little or no effect on the general results, the section of the community who suffered the most probably being the Catholics themselves, who, if true to their faith, had to stay away from an enjoyable series of entertainments. The letter has, however, engendered a spirit of retaliation which may make itself severely felt on the Catholic Charity Funds; for many Protestants—un-associated with Freemasonry as well as members of the Order—have determined to discontinue their contributions to Catholic charities, for which, as is well known, the people of Dublin are frequently appealed to. Whatever may be said of the merits or demerits of the antipathy of the Church of Rome to Freemasonry there seems no excuse for such contemptible action on the part of its leaders as to forbid the members to help the widow and the orphan. Such bigoted intolerance is nothing to be proud of, and must convince many of the slender hold the Church has upon its followers, else it would not need such grave penalties being imposed for such small offences. Happily for the Catholic charities, Freemasonry knows no such intolerance, and it will be something new to Freemasonry if any considerable section of the Craft retaliate on the Catholic orphan in the hope of punishing their misguided chief, the Archbishop of Dublin.

The following is the letter from the Archbishop, and which was read in the Catholic Churches of Dublin:—

Dublin, 29th April 1892.

VERY REVEREND AND DEAR FATHER,—Within the last few weeks several questions have been addressed to me as to the duty of Catholics in reference to the Masonic celebration which is to be held in Dublin a few weeks hence, and for which such elaborate preparations are now being made by the members of the Society of Freemasons in every part of Ireland.

Strong influences of many kinds are, it seems, actively at work to induce Catholics to take some part in the proceedings.

It becomes, then, my duty to point out that by the law of the Church it is most strictly forbidden to Catholics to take any part in those proceedings, or to give countenance to them, either by being present at the coming Masonic celebration, or by promoting in any other way the object for which the celebration is to be held.

The Holy See, in its repeated condemnations of Freemasonry, has forbidden to Catholics, not only membership in the Society of Freemasons, but everything that could in any way tend to the furtherance of the interests of that Society.

The object for which the coming Masonic festivities are to be held is, no doubt, one that is naturally calculated to appeal to the charitable sympathies of our people. An Orphanage—one of the many established in this city and its neighbourhood by the practical benevolence of the people of Dublin and of Ireland—has reached the hundredth anniversary of its foundation. With commendable enterprise those interested in the welfare of the Institution are taking advantage of the occasion as an appropriate one for a combined energetic effort in aid of its work.

For them nothing could be more natural. But with us, Catholics, the case is very different.

We are not in a position to regard that Orphanage merely as a benevolent institution. We have to remember also that it is, essentially and exclusively, a Masonic Institution. By its very constitution its sphere of work is limited to the children of deceased Freemasons. Supported with generosity, as it always has been, by the more affluent amongst the brethren of the Order, it necessarily constitutes one of the props of Freemasonry in Ireland. It is this that must determine our attitude towards the attractive festivities that are now being organised in its behalf.

There is then, I feel confident, no danger of its being supposed by our Protestant fellow-citizens or fellow-countrymen that it is in any spirit of censoriousness towards any of the Protestant supporters of the Institution that Catholics will hold aloof from all share in the work now in progress on behalf of the interests of the Freemason Orphanage.

Faithful to their duty as Catholics, they will respect the stringent obligation under which they are placed—an obligation binding them, under penalty of incurring the severest censures of the Church, to abstain not merely from membership in the Freemason Society, but from everything that could in any way tend to the advancement of the interests of that society, or to the promotion of any of its objects.

But for the questions that have been put to me on this matter I should not have thought it could be necessary for me to address any instruction on the subject to the faithful of this diocese.

I remain, Very Rev. and Dear Father,

Your faithful servant,

+ WILLIAM,

Archbishop of Dublin, &c., &c.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE R.M. BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION.

THE Subscribers to the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution held their annual meeting on Friday of last week at Freemason's Tavern, under the presidency of Bro. J. A. Farnfield P.A.G.D. of C., Treasurer of the Institution. There was a large attendance of brethren, among them being several who take an especial interest in the conduct and general welfare of this branch of the Masonic Charity Funds. The first business was the submission of the Auditors' Report, which was duly received, after which the Report of the Committee of Management was read by the Secretary of the Institution, Bro. James Terry.*

On a proposition that the Report should be adopted Bro. Hawkins expressed a desire to know the cost of managing the Charity during the past year, upon which the Chairman said the accounts would be printed and circulated among those interested in the Institution throughout the Kingdom, and, in future, accounts would be sent out with the voting papers. It was not possible to give the information asked for that day, nor could the Secretary or Auditors give the total in round numbers. He admitted, however, that the question asked by Bro. Hawkins was a reasonable one. The report was then unanimously adopted, after which Bro. Farnfield was re-elected Treasurer, and Bros. Tattershall, Kempton, and Stanley Attenborough were elected Auditors.

Bro. Daniel next rose to call attention to a matter which had occurred in connection with the Institution, and which he thought deserved notice. At a late meeting of the Committee of Management Bro. Perceval gave notice of motion that 150 guineas be given out of the funds of the Institution to Bro. Terry, and 50 guineas to Brother Stevens, for their exertions in connection with the late Jubilee Festival. The Committee was composed of 26 or 27 brethren, and, seeing that there was a strong desire to carry it, he (Bro. Daniel) thought it was a most unfair thing that they should decide what ought to have been decided by the large body of subscribers, and that the Provincial brethren should have no opportunity to have a voice in it. He, therefore, moved that it stand over to the annual meeting for the general body to decide. However, it was put to the vote, and his amendment was lost by 17 to 9. Of the next meeting in May, to his surprise, he did not receive a notice; he was told it was posted, but he did not receive it. He was told it was summoned only for general business. The Chairman on that occasion intimated that Bro. Perceval's motion was not a matter that should be delegated to the general meeting, and on being asked if he so ruled, he said he did. A great many of the brethren now present did not know that Bro. Terry had had voted to him by the Board of Stewards of the recent Festival 200 guineas, and Bro. Stevens 100 guineas. It was so, however, and he thought they were well rewarded for their special services to the Institution.

The Chairman asked what Bro. Daniel moved; he must make a motion. He had made a statement and attacked him (the Chairman). He must not attack every one all round without making a motion. For himself, he did not mind the attack. Bro. Daniel must finish with a motion. That was a natural corollary.

Bro. Daniel said he moved that Bro. Perceval's notice of motion at the Committee meeting in April last be now disposed of at this meeting. He begged to mention that in what he was doing he had not a word to say against the great services to the Institution rendered by Bro. Terry or Bro. Stevens, but he thought that in the votes of 200 guineas and 100 guineas from the Stewards they had been amply rewarded.

Bro. Harris rose to second the motion.

The Chairman, however, asked what Bro. Harris was seconding.

Bro. Harris said the Chairman knew what the motion was.

The Chairman did not want it in that general way. He wanted to know exactly what Brother Harris was seconding.

Bro. Harris: You know what the motion is. We heard it over here.

Bro. Daniel: So elated was Bro. Perceval with the Chairman's ruling that he then and there gave notice that he would bring his motion on at the next monthly meeting.

The Chairman: Brethren, is it your wish that I put this motion to you? (Cries of "Yes.") I tell you that on reading the laws I am of opinion, as I stated at the Committee of Management, that the general meeting has no power to take it into their consideration. If you will refer to the law you will find vested in the Committee of Management are all questions of salaries or remuneration to the Officers of the Institution, and I do not see how this general meeting can take that power away from them. Neither do I see that this matter can come on for the consideration of the general meeting unless it is printed and sent with the ballot papers that that is one of the questions to be discussed. Still, as I see some members are in favour of it I will put it, although I feel that it is not competent to be voted upon.

Bro. Hawkins: Excuse me; do you not propose to allow it to be discussed?

The Chairman: The question is whether it is to be discussed. You cannot discuss it before it is decided whether it is right it should be discussed.

Bro. Daniel's motion was lost—24 voting against it, and 23 for it.

Bro. Masters demanded a poll.

Bro. Terry: There is no power.

A Brother: It is usual. The brother further suggested that notice should be sent out to all the Subscribers and Governors of any recommendation by the Committee of Management of any proposal to give an additional sum to the Secretary or other Officers of the Institution.

The Chairman said it would involve the postage of 20,000 circulars.

Bro. Hawkins: The postage of 20,000 circulars is a large sum; but £150 spent for other purposes than those for which the Society is established is not so important.

A Brother informed the Chairman that the difficulty of his ruling seemed to be that they should now move a vote of censure on the Committee.

The Chairman said the meeting was not going to discuss the subject, as the meeting had thrown out Bro. Daniel's motion that it be discussed at the general meeting.

The Brother inquired whether the Chairman meant to say that the Committee of Management could vote any amount they pleased to the Secretary. Was that a claim which they put forward?

The Chairman: I have not put any claim forward. I guarded myself.

Bro. C. E. Keyser J.G.D., was very sorry indeed this discussion had arisen. He had the honour of being one of the Trustees of the Institution and felt a great interest in it. He was present at the meeting of the Committee, and he believed that it was not advisable in the interests of the Institution or of Bro. Terry himself that the votes should be snapped up that way. He thought it better that it should be discussed by a large body. They were all anxious to recognise Bro. Terry's services; they were quite certain that but for him the subscriptions would not have been what they were. The Stewards could vote what money they pleased, because it was their own; but when money of the Institution was being voted, the Committee must feel that it was frequently misinterpreted in the Provinces, and Provincial brethren might say, "if these sums of money which are subscribed to the Institution are given to Bro. Terry, I will not come up as Steward." He thought that in the interest of the Institution and of Bro. Terry, this money should not be voted. Therefore he moved that they express a hearty vote of thanks to Bro. Terry for having helped to place the Institution in the position it occupied that day.

Bro. Daniel seconded.

Bro. Hawkins supported. He recognised the amount of work of Bro. Terry and his staff. He was sorry they had had to work so hard—on Sunday, too; which Freemasons should not encourage. In these days when an eight hours' day was the cry, it was much to the credit of the staff that they worked so hard. Brother Keyser had spoken of the assiduous way in which Bro. Terry and his staff had worked, but forgot to mention the work the Stewards performed in the Provinces. Knowing as a Steward the difficulty there was to get together £30 or £40, he thought the Stewards might come in for some share of the thanks without detracting in any way from the halo of glory around Bro. Terry and his staff.

The motion was carried.

The Chairman wished it to be understood that he was not present at the Committee of Management when Bro. Perceval's motion was proposed, and had nothing to do with it.

The meeting then proceeded with the election of annuitants, full results of which will be found in our present issue.

The following are the unsuccessful candidates at the recent election of the Benevolent Institution, with the number of votes now standing to the credit of each:—

In a recent issue, in giving the Masonic record of Bro. George Gardner, we referred to him as a candidate for a seat on the Committee of Management of the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls. It is for the Board of General Purposes that Bro. Gardner is seeking the suffrages of his Brother Masons, and we wish him every success on the occasion of the ballot next Wednesday.

LODGE OF SYMPATHY, No. 855.

THE installation festival was held in the Town Hall, Weston-Super-Mare, on Tuesday, the 10th inst., when Bro. Worlock was installed as W.M. for the ensuing year. The installing Master was Bro. Millman P.M., who impressively performed the ceremony, assisted by P.M.'s Bros. Phelps, White, Perrett, Perrin, Heath, Gould, &c. The W.M. afterwards invested the following as Officers of the Lodge:—Bros. Millman S.W., Penley J.W., Rev. P. Upstone Chaplain, Perrett Treasurer, Vigor Secretary, Adams S.D., Mackenzie J.D., Perrin D.C., Lawnsdown Organist, Jotcham I.G., Windon Tyler. The following visitors signed the register:—Bros. Major-General Vizard 761, Small 761, Weston 2407, Edwards 2407, Northcote 702, Worlock 1296, and Gould. The banquet was served by host Brain, at the Swan Hotel, the large room being handsomely decorated for the occasion. The usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were given and responded to.

ST. BARNABAS LODGE, No. 948.

THE brethren held their annual meeting on Tuesday, 3rd inst., the occasion being the installation of the new Master. The meeting was called for two o'clock, and by a dispensation granted by the Deputy Provincial Grand Master for Bucks was allowed to meet in the school-room belonging to Sunnyside House, Linslade. Besides the brethren belonging to the Lodge, a number of visitors were present, among whom we noticed Bro. Lane, Berkhamstead; Bros. Spendlove, Platten, Pearson, Morcom, McCubbin, Simms, Martin, Wilson, Rowe, Palmer and Hodgkinson. The Lodge being opened, the Secretary (Bro. Poynter) read the annual report and the financial statement for the past year. The Treasurer (Bro. Fountaine) reported that he had a balance in hand of over £17. During the year ten new members had been admitted, and one had resigned, leaving forty-four as the number of names now on the books. During the year £20 had been given in charity to the orphans, the aged, and the distressed. The outgoing Master (Bro. Mackrill) performed the ceremony of installing his successor. This he did with that ability and perfection which has characterised his work throughout the year. The new Officers are Bros. Hill W.M., Mackrill I.P.M., Cliffe S.W., Wagstaff J.W., Fountaine P.M. Treasurer, Poynter P.M. Secretary, Hobson S.D., Hubbard J.D., Hunt I.G., Phillips and Miller P.M. Stewards, Whitman Tyler. During the ceremony the W.M. presented a beautiful gold jewel, the gift of the Lodge, to Bro. Mackrill, as a token of esteem and appreciation of his services during the past year. After receiving the congratulations of the assembled brethren, the new Master closed the Lodge. The usual banquet was afterwards held in the Masonic Hall, Elephant and Castle Hotel. The room, which had been recently renovated, was tastefully decorated with flowers, provided by Mr. Martin, of the Linslade Nurseries. The menu embraced all the delicacies of the season, and was catered for by Mr. J. J. Wood, of Leighton Buzzard. Several loyal and complimentary toasts were proposed and responded to. During the evening a most pleasing episode took place. The Immediate Past Master presented Bro. Poynter P.M. Secretary with a very handsome testimonial, which has been subscribed for by the members of the Lodge. It was a beautifully illuminated address, framed and glazed. The design is quite a work of art, and is said to be a copy of the frontispiece of the Missal used by Mary Queen of Scots immediately before her decapitation. The colours are exceedingly brilliant; the corners are emblazoned with Masonic emblems, and the centre contains a fac-simile of the Lodge banner, with the figure of St. Barnabas surrounded by the name and number of the Lodge. It is painted on best vellum, and framed in a neat white heading, edged with gold and floral designs. The inscription is as follows:—

Province of Buckinghamshire.

Presented, with a purse of fifty sovereigns, to

Bro. HENRY POYNTER P.M. P.G.J.W. Berks and Bucks.

By the Brethren of the above Lodge, and a few personal friends in the Craft, in grateful recognition of his services, as Secretary, during a period of twenty-one years.

May 3rd 1892.

To this is appended the names of the Officers. Bro. Poynter, in his reply, thanked the brethren generally, but especially Bro. Mackrill, with whom the project originated, and Bros. Wagstaff and McCubbin for so successfully carrying out the work, remarking that, however acceptable the money might be, the address was still more valuable, as it would remain a memento of the goodwill and of the confidence of the brethren in years to come. The company had a very pleasant evening and separated at an early hour.

EGERTON CHAPTER, No. 1030 (HEATON NORRIS).

A REGULAR meeting was held at the George Hotel, on Monday, the 23rd inst., when there were present Bros. Wm. A. Vaughan W.M., Knott S.W., Henry Smith J.W., E. G. Lingard P.M. Treasurer P.P.G.J.W., W. H. Vaughan P.M. P.P.G. Registrar Secretary, J. W. Abbott P.M. P.P.G.D.C., Goodfellow I.G., A. Pemberton P.M. P.P.G.D.C., R. Bassnett Preston P.M., Allen, Alfred W. Pemberton, Hyde Marriott, Burgess, Haddon, and Fisher. Visitors—William Sharples 2359, and R. R. Lisenden P.M. P.P.G. Steward. The Lodge was opened in due form, and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed. In the second degree Bro. Hyde Marriott, who was a candidate for raising, answered the necessary questions and retired. He was subsequently raised to the sublime degree by Bro. R. Bassnett Preston, Bro. Henry Smith presenting the working tools. There being no further business the Lodge was closed.

VICTORIA LODGE, No. 1345 (ECCLES).

A REGULAR meeting was held at the Cross Keys' Hotel, on Thursday, the 19th instant. This is the first meeting since the installation of Bro. Tom Wood that the worthy W.M. has been able, owing to his long illness, to preside, and it is scarcely necessary to add he was welcomed on all sides. Amongst those present were Bros. Tom Wood W.M., Broughton S.W., Hugh Rowlands P.M. acting J.W., Joseph Lees P.M. Treasurer, Wm. Corner jun. P.M. P.G.D.C. Secretary, Pears S.D., Ambler J.D., Keys I.G.; Bros. Boycott P.M., Grundy, Martendale, Mather, Budgeon, Jackson, Cartwright, Hooper, and Thomas. Visitors—George Macfarland P.M. 1633, and R. R. Lisenden P.M. 317 P.P.G. Steward. The Lodge was opened at six o'clock, and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed. In the second degree Bros. Martendale and Thomas, who were candidates for raising, answered the necessary questions, received the test of merit, and retired. Subsequently Bro. Martendale was raised to the sublime degree by Bro. Joseph Lees P.M., and Bro. Thomas by the W.M. The manner in which Brother Wood performed the ceremony showed clearly that during his illness how anxious he must have been to attend his Lodge duties, and his determination, should the G.A.O.T.U. spare him, to perform those duties creditably. His earnestness and natural manner while performing the ceremony unmistakably made a profound impression on the candidate, as it also did on the brethren present. Bro. Joseph Lees related the traditional history, explained the tracing board, and presented the working tools to both candidates, after which the Lodge was lowered, and closed in due form. The brethren having supped together, the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were proposed, including the health of the newly raised brethren, who responded. Bro. Wm. Corner jun., in rising to propose the health of the W.M., said it was always a pleasure to propose this toast, but on the present occasion it was doubly so, owing to Bro. Wood's absence from the Lodge meetings through illness. He assured the W.M. that during his enforced retirement from their midst, a cloud seemed to hang over the Lodge, and dullness reigned. Every one present at those meetings was sensitive of the cause, and deeply lamented it, but now, thanks to the G.A.O.T.U., who had restored their W.M. once more to good health, the cloud was dispelled, and they were all delighted beyond measure to see him once more with them, and extend to him the right hand of fellowship and brotherly love. Bro. Corner continuing, said the brethren might not be aware of the fact, but would be pleased to hear that during the W.M.'s illness he had, when not in for much pain, studied the ceremonies of initiation, passing, and raising, and if he had been well enough to attend their meeting in April, could have performed all three. This showed how thoroughly in earnest he was, and if proof was required it was amply illustrated that evening by the impressive manner he had performed the ceremony of raising. In conclusion, Bro. Corner said he hoped the day would be far distant when their W.M. would be compelled to absent himself from the Lodge on account of ill-health, and in wishing him health, wealth, and prosperity, he was sure he echoed the feelings of every member of the Lodge. Bro. Wood's health was heartily drank, and the brethren sang the chorus of "Here's to his health in a song." Subsequently the W.M. responded, and after thanking Bro. Corner for his kind remarks, and the brethren for their exhibition of good feeling, said he had no idea he had so many good friends, who during his illness had never ceased to make daily inquiries as to his progress.

HOVA ECCLESIA LODGE, No. 1466.

THE annual installation and banquet took place at the Old Ship Hotel, Brighton, on Saturday, the 7th instant. There was a very large assemblage to greet the retiring W.M. Brother Charles Aubrey Smith, and the Worshipful Master elect Bro. Major Walter Beaumont. The installation and working was admirable, the retiring W.M. acquitting himself faultlessly. Brother Beaumont having been duly installed, invested his Officers, as follow:—Bros. E. D. Akerman S.W., H. D. Willock J.W., C. J. Smith Treasurer, J. P. Slingsby Roberts Secretary, C. R. Foster S.D., W. J. Gordon J.D., P. Slingsby Tanner I.G., Norman Roe Organist, F. Carr and J. G. Allen Stewards. Work concluded, the brethren adjourned to the ball-room, and under the presidency of the newly-installed W.M. Bro. Beaumont partook of a choice banquet, refreshed by very good wine. Following grace, the customary Masonic toasts were well proposed and duly honoured, that of the Worshipful Master of the Lodge meeting with great enthusiasm. Miss Maud Bond and Miss A. T. Day also charmingly entertained by their beautiful singing, Bro. Norman Roe accompanying. The proceeding throughout were thoroughly worthy of the Hova Ecclesia Lodge.

PRUDENCE AND INDUSTRY LODGE, No. 1953.

THE installation of Bro. Francis George England took place at the Masonic Hall, Chard, on Wednesday, the 11th inst. The ceremony was impressively performed by V.W. Bro. Elsie D.P.G.M. Somerset P.G.D. England, in the presence of a large attendance of brethren from the Chard, Taunton, Ilminster and Axminster Lodges. The Worshipful Master installed and invested his Officers, as follow:—Bros. Indge I.P.M., Norrington S.W., Plank J.W., Jarman P.M. Treasurer, Derrick P.M. Secretary, Rev. H. K. Law Chaplain, J. Symes S.D., E. J. Symes J.D., Gawler Dir. of Cers., Toms I.G., Brinston Organist, Denning and F. Hill Stewards, White Tyler. The outgoing Master (Bro. Indge), before vacating the chair, on behalf of the Lodge, presented Bro. Derrick P.P.G.D.C., Secretary for many years, with an exceedingly handsome P.M.'s jewel. In eulogistic terms he alluded to the long and efficient service which Bro. Derrick had rendered to Freemasonry generally, and to Lodge Prudence and Industry in particular. Bro. Derrick feelingly thanked the brethren for their kindness. The jewel is in design a fac-simile of the handsome banner of the Lodge, bearing the Chard arms. It is of solid 18-carat gold. On the back of the jewel is engraved the following inscription:—"Presented to Brother Louis George Derrick P.M. P.P.G.D.C., by the brethren of Lodge Prudence and Industry, 1593, Chard, May 1892." The usual banquet was held at the George Hotel.

JOHN CARPENTER LODGE, No. 1997.

THE installation meeting was held on Friday, the 13th inst., at the Albion, Aldersgate Street. Bro. Mount Brown W.M. opened the Lodge, and referred in suitable and feeling terms to the great loss the Lodge had sustained by the sudden death of Bro. Frank Taylor, C.C., P.M. It was proposed by the W.M., seconded by Bro. Wilkinson-Pimbury, and unanimously resolved by the brethren, that a letter of sympathy should be addressed to Mrs. Frank Taylor. The minutes having been confirmed, Bro. Mount Brown raised Bro. Harry McClintock Harris to the sublime degree of a Master Mason, and immediately after that ceremony installed Bro. Charles Lamb W.M. elect into the Master's chair, giving the customary addresses in a manner that elicited the applause of the brethren. The new Master appointed and invested his Officers, as follow:—Bros. L. Ferguson S.W., J. P. W. Goodwin J.W., C. W. C. Hutton Treasurer, J. Pinder Secretary, G. Inskipp S.D., S. H. Simon J.D., C. J. Wilkinson-Pimbury D.C., J. Barthram Taylor I.G., P. E. Cham Steward, Baxter Assistant Steward, and S. W. Kent Organist. After the banquet, Bro. Mount Brown was presented with a gold P.M.'s jewel for his valuable services during his year of office. The customary Masonic toasts were most cordially received. There was a large attendance of visitors, and the musical arrangements were under the direction of Bro. Lovett King.

ARTHUR SULLIVAN LODGE, No. 2156, (MANCHESTER).

A HIGHLY successful and long to be remembered meeting took place on Wednesday, at Mrs. Stopford's, Old Boar's Head Hotel. Nearly all the members of this Lodge are professional vocalists and instrumentalists, several being members of Sir Charles Halle's orchestra. The genial W.M. Bro. Oliver Gags is a flutist, and has instituted an annual musical evening, a notification of which appeared on the circular with a request that all brethren wishing to take part in the programme should bring their instruments. Amongst those present were Bros. Oliver Gags W.M., Goldthorpe P.P.G. Registrar I.P.M., Goss S.W., Hulme J.W., N. Dumville P.M. P.P.G. Steward Treasurer, Radman Secretary, Cuthbert Blacow J.D., Chas. Turner P.M. D. of C., Kinnell I.G., Morley, Taylor, and Jackson Stewards, Wm. Booth P.M. P.P.G.D.C. Cheshire, Avison P.M., W. Dumville P.M.; Reynolds, Shenton, Stafford, Ben Brierley, Harmer, Barnfather, Clough, Kay, T. H. Gags, Robert Johnson, and Nichol; Visitors—Wm. Nichol 1170 P.P.G. Treasurer, Wadsworth P.M. 1458, Buckley Carr P.M. 1161 1458, T. E. Rigby P.M. 287 1055, Coates 1077, Preston 1496, Scott 1219, Barton 1219, and Eaton 146. The Lodge was opened at 2.30, and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed. The W.M. invested Bro. C. Reynolds as S.D. for the remainder of the year. This investment—owing to the unfortunate death of the previous holder of the office,—Brother Reynolds being one of the founders of the Lodge, showed the W.M. had made a happy selection. In the second degree Bro. Nichol, who was ready and willing to take his third degree, was interrogated as to his proficiency in the former, and withdrew. He was subsequently raised to the sublime degree by the W.M., Brother Charles Turner relating the traditional history, explaining the tracing board, and presenting the working tools. There being no further business, hearty good wishes were expressed by the numerous Visitors, and the Lodge was closed in peace and harmony. The brethren afterwards partook of tea; when this was finished, the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were honoured, the intervals between each being devoted to a performance of vocal and instrumental music. Amongst the various morceaux rendered were the following:—"The Soldiers' chorus," "Faust," by Bros. Blacon, Kennell, Clough, W. and N. Dumville, Mark Stafford, William Booth, Turner, and Goldthorpe; a "nocturne," played magnificently by Bro. Harmer on the violin, and vociferously applauded. Brother Harmer also played a duet with Bro. Avison, who manipulated the violoncello. Bro. Cuthbert Blacon sang "He like a soldier fell," accompanied by the band, and Brother Kennell gave "I am a Friar of Orders Grey." A solo on the oboe by Bro. Reynolds was played in grand style, after which Bro. Clough, who has a splendid baritone voice, sang Pinsuti's "The Raft," with great expression and finish. Bro. W. H. Murphy played a selection in the mandoline, accompanied on the piano by Brother Tom Gags. Bro. Lisenden recited "The life of a soldier," and, by desire, "Over the hills from the poorhouse," and Bro. Goldthorpe sang "The Poacher." Every one did his utmost to please his professional and non professional brethren, and succeeded in every sense of the word. To see the beaming countenance of the W.M., and note his keen enjoyment when listening to the execution of the various pieces, was a veritable treat, and a picture of "Oliver Gags at home." During the evening a telegram was despatched to Sir Arthur Sullivan, congratulating him on his recovery.

DUKE OF FIFE LODGE, No. 2345.

THE regular meeting was held at the Alexander Hotel, Clapham, on Wednesday evening, the 18th inst., when there were present Brothers J. W. Folkard W.M., E. Beavan S.W., J. Langdon J.W., J. Wyer P.P.G.D.C. Kent as I.P.M., C. Woods Secretary, A. Harvey

S.D., J. Lyell J.D., G. F. Winny Organist, S. Rashlev as Inner Guard, H. Lynn P.M., W. Baldwin, A. Robertson, F. Roberts, W. Stracey, T. Morris, J. Broomfield, Harrison, S. Cochrane P.M. D.C., and E. Daoust. Visitors—Bros. J. Gray 172, W. F. Hiscock 87, and F. W. Crutchett 1360. The minutes of the installation and emergency meetings, were read and signed. Bro. Wilfred Stracey was passed to the second degree. The balance sheet was unanimously adopted on the proposition of Bros. Robertson and Roberts. Apologies for absence were received from Bros. Lawrence, Hadley, George Everett Past Grand Treasurer England, and W. W. Westley I.P.M., all of whom were engaged in other work. A hearty vote of sympathy with Bro. Steele Treasurer was passed. A hope was expressed that he would soon be fully restored to health. All Masonic business being ended the Lodge was closed. After the dinner which followed the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were duly honoured. In proposing the Worshipful Master, the acting I.P.M. said that it was a very pleasant task, as all so very greatly respected Brother Folkard. He could say that his difficult task was well performed. He might add that the management of the Lodge was perfect, and could not be surpassed by any other Lodge. The W.M. responded, expressing his determination to deserve well of the Lodge. The toast of the Visitors was well received and responded to. All the Visitors present were satisfied with the arrangements of the Lodge. In proposing the Past Masters and Officers the W.M. happily referred to the characteristics of each member. Bro. S. Cochrane responded for the Past Masters, and drew attention to the Charities. He gave a description of the Girls' Festival, under the presidency of H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, from which he had hurried away to reach the Lodge. He also pointed out that £67,000 had been raised for the "old people" this year. This should be enough to satisfy any one of the good of the Order. Bro. Wyer also responded. Bros. Beavan S.W., Langdon J.W., Harvey S.D. (W.M. elect 1893), Lyell J.W., Rashleigh acting I.G., and Woods Secretary responded for the Officers. Bro. Woods urged upon the brethren the necessity of working hard to ensure the return of Bro. S. Cochrane, not only on the Board of General Purposes, but also as Grand Treasurer in 1893. Brother Cochrane had worked so hard that it would be an honour to Grand Lodge to have him as Grand Treasurer. Brothers Stracey, Lyell, Langdon, Roberts and Winny contributed towards the harmony of the evening.

WEST LANCASHIRE CENTURY LODGE, No. 2349.

THE annual Masonic service in connection with this Lodge was held in the Holy Trinity Church, South Shore, on Sunday afternoon, the 18th inst. The brethren appeared in Craft clothing and jewels, white ties and white gloves, a dispensation having been granted by the Provincial Grand Master, and they assembled at the infants school in Lytham Road, and proceeded down Dean Street to the church. The Rev. Chaplain of the Lodge, Bro. S. Y. B. Bradshaw P.M. 2349 and P. Prov. G.C. of East Lancashire and Northumberland, preached the sermon, which was both eloquent and suitable for the occasion. Bro. Bradshaw appealed for their sympathy on behalf of the Masonic Charities, and a collection was taken for such Charities which amounted to £10 3s 2d. Bro. C. W. Fisher, Mus. Bac. Cantab, P.M. 1476 and Provincial Grand Organist, presided at the organ, and the service was fully choral. Besides the members of the Lodge, there were many members of neighbouring Lodges present, and a very large number of other persons.

MINNEHAHA MINSTREL LODGE; No. 2363, (MANCHESTER.)

A MEETING was held on Monday, the 23rd inst., at the Victoria Hotel. Present—Bros. Wrigley W.M., Martin Thomas I.P.M. P.P.G.J.D., F. W. Wollaston S.W., W. G. Brabner J.W., C. Harrop Treasurer, Fred. Hilton Secretary, C. H. Beaver S.D., Edwin Smith Organist, Herbert W. Brockbank and Edgar Armstrong Stewards, R. R. Lisenden P.M. Tyler; Bros. Schofield, Barlow, Hayes, Openshaw, Hitching, and Lilley; Visitors—W. H. Ballard P.M. 350, H. J. Cutter P.M. 44, J. P. Redson P.M. 163 P.P.G. Organist, and James Lowndes P.M. 999, 163 P.P.G. Supt. Works. The Lodge was opened at 6.10, and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed. Bro. Brabner delivered the E.A. Charge to Brother Hitching, who was initiated at the last meeting. Bro. Hitching afterwards answered the necessary questions leading from the first to the second degree, and retired. He was subsequently passed to the degree of Fellow Craft by the W.M., Bro. Beaver explaining the working tools at length. There being no further business the Lodge was closed in peace and harmony. At the social board the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were honoured. Bros. James Lowndes and J. P. Redson replied for the Prov. G. Officers. After the health of the newly-passed Bro. Hitching had been ably proposed by Bro. Martin Thomas, drank, and responded to, the W.M. proposed the Visiting Brethren in his usual happy vein. In response, one of the visitors, Bro. Cutter, said he had been a member of the Craft for over a quarter of a century, and had never been inside a more perfect Lodge in his life. The excellent working all round, with the additional charm of responses and singing, made a completeness that was not often witnessed, and created admiration in the eyes of all visitors. Bro. J. P. Redson said the fame of the Lodge was wide-spread, and although he had been going to pay the Lodge a visit for the last two years he had not been able to do so until that night, when he found everything that had been spoken of it quite true. It was indeed a pleasure and an honour to belong to such a Lodge, and to witness the unanimity and good feeling that prevailed. He assured them his visit had given him great pleasure, and he should certainly like to come again. Bro. Ballard replied in an exceedingly humorous speech that caused roars of laughter. During the evening songs and recitations were given by Brothers

Martin Thomas, Schofield (accompanied on the banjo), Brabner, Bedson, Ballard, and Lisenden. Bros. Barlow and Schofield played a selection on the mandoline and guitar.

WILLIAM SHURMUR LODGE, No. 2374.

A REGULAR meeting of this Lodge was held at the Royal Forest Hotel, Chingford, on Thursday, the 19th inst., when a large number of distinguished brethren were in attendance. Precisely at three o'clock the Lodge was opened by Bro. Wm. Shurmur P. Prov. Grand Treasurer I.P.M. and the minutes of the last regular meeting and three emergency meetings were confirmed. The ballot was taken for five candidates, viz.: Messrs. Barnett, J. Hopwood, John Carey, W. Schofield, and James W. Thurlow, all of whom were elected unanimously, and the three present were initiated into the first degree; twelve brethren were passed to the second degree, and four raised to the rank of Master Masons. Several propositions for initiation and joining were received. The vote of four hundred guineas to the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution was unanimously confirmed. Heartly good wishes having been expressed, the brethren, to the number of ninety-eight, adjourned to the banqueting hall for refreshment, under the genial presidency of the Worshipful Master (Bro. D. P. Holness). The usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were given and responded to with heartiness and enthusiasm. Bro. Joseph Wilson P.M. and representative of the Lodge at the Essex Charity Committee reported that he had forwarded to Bro. T. J. Ralling Prov. Grand Secretary over thirteen hundred votes, which included the 600 Lodge votes and 240 from the Junior Warden (Bro. Nathaniel Fortescue, C.C.). The musical arrangements were under the skilful management of Bro. Dr. Haskins, R.A., Prov. Grand Organist, assisted by Bros. Joseph Cutler, T. H. Lloyd and S. J. Gray. Altogether a most enjoyable evening was spent.

WRITTEN BY A BOARD OF EDITORS.

HENRY LEONARD STILLSON, Editor-in-Chief.

WILLIAM JAMES HUGHAN, Consulting Editor.

THIS work contains a comprehensive account of Ancient Masonry; the Ancient Masonic MSS., or "Old Charges"; the Crusades, and their Relation to the Fraternity; Cosmopolitan Freemasonry, including all its Rites, throughout the World; the American and British Templar Systems; the A. and A.S. Rite, and Royal Order of Scotland; other Rites and Orders connected with the Institution; and Tables of Vital Statistics, never before compiled,—the whole comprising the most Authentic History of the Fraternity of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons ever originated and printed in America.

WRITTEN BY A BOARD OF EDITORS AND SPECIAL CONTRIBUTORS, twenty-two in number, chosen from among the most eminent and learned specialists of the day; and a Corps of over seventy ADDITIONAL CONTRIBUTORS, also comprising some of the most distinguished and best known Officers and members of the Craft in the United States, Canada, and England.

In the Capitular, Cryptic, and Templar Departments especially, this volume will furnish the foundation for all future efforts; showing how, when, and where these Degrees and Rites began, as well as their rise and progress throughout the Masonic world.

It contains 900 super-royal octavo pages, elegantly printed on superfine book paper, and illustrated with 50 choice engravings.

A Brother of the Leopold Lodge, No. 1571, London	50	0 0

9. REPORT OF THE BOARD OF GENERAL PURPOSES.

To the United Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of England.

The Board beg to report that a Lodge at Guildford had returned the name of a brother as a joining member from the United Lodge, No. 697, Colchester, who was not on the Register, and on being informed of this, forwarded to the Grand Secretary's Office the Clearance Certificate the brother had received from Lodge 697, at the time of his resignation, stating that he joined the Lodge in October 1879, continued a member until February 1881, when he resigned, having previously paid all dues and demands.

The Board being unwilling to summon the Officers of Lodge 697 to attend in London if it could be avoided, requested the Grand Registrar, who is also Deputy Provincial Grand Master of the Province, to summon them before him, when he should be in Colchester, and to hear their explanation.

The Grand Registrar reported that the Lodge had paid to him the amount due to Grand Lodge, and expressed their deep regret at the omission for which they were unable to account satisfactorily, the Secretary and others who had signed the Clearance Certificate being dead.

It appeared that the brother had joined the Lodge from a Lodge under the Scotch Constitution, but owing to the Lodge at Colchester neglecting to register his name, he had not received a Certificate under the English Constitution, to which he was entitled.

The Board taking into consideration the lapse of time, and that probably few of the present members were members at the time of the offence, were of opinion that the justice of the case would be met by a resolution that the Lodge be severely reprimanded, admonished to be more careful in future, and fined the sum of £1 1s, and they resolved accordingly.

To the Report is subjoined a statement of the Grand Lodge Accounts at the last meeting of the Finance Committee, held on Friday, the 13th day of May instant, showing a balance in the Bank of England (Western Branch) of £8903 13s 8d, and balance of annual allowance for library £33 5s 8d, and in the hands of the Grand Secretary for petty cash £100, and for servants' wages £100.

(Signed) THOMAS FENN,

President.

FREEMASONS' HALL, LONDON, W.C.

17th May 1892.

At the meeting of the Board held on Tuesday, the 17th May, after the ordinary business had been disposed of, the following resolution was passed, viz.:—

"That the cordial thanks of the members of the Board of General Purposes be tendered to the President, V.W. Bro. Thomas Fenn, for the very able and courteous manner in which he has presided over the meetings of the Board during the past year, and that the Board desire especially to express their appreciation of the services rendered to the Craft by Brother Fenn in superintending, in conjunction with the Grand Registrar, for upwards of two months, from the lamented death of the late Colonel Shadwell H. Clerke, until the appointment of his successor, the work of the Grand Secretary's office."

(Signed) LENNOX BROWNE,

Vice-President.

10. The Annual Report of the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution for Aged Freemasons and Widows of Freemasons, dated 20th of May 1892, will be laid before Grand Lodge.

11. NOTICE OF MOTION.

By Brother John Albert Farnfield P. Assist. G. Dir. of Cers.

That the sum of £70 be given from the Fund of General Purposes; that the money be placed in the hands of the Secretary of the "Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution for Aged Freemasons and Widows of Freemasons," to supply the inmates of the Institution at Croydon with coals during the winter season.

12. NOTICE OF MOTION.

By V.W. Bro. Robert Grey, President of the Board of Benevolence.

That in future the Board of Masters and Board of Benevolence do meet at 5 p.m. instead of 6 p.m.

13. APPEAL.

By Brother J. Lonis. 1stly, against a sentence of the District Grand Master of Bengal of the 3rd and 7th December 1891, suspending him from his rank and privileges as a Freemason for twelve months for un-Masonic conduct, and 2ndly, against his decision of the 6th December 1891, refusing to entertain a complaint against W. Bros. Jones and Rustomjee, preferred by the said Brother J. Louis in a letter dated the 5th December 1891.

List of Lodges for which Warrants have been granted by the Most Worshipful Grand Master since the last Quarterly Communication of Grand Lodge.

- No. 2423.—The St. Mark's Lodge, Connah's Quay, North Wales.
- 2424.—The St. Stephen's Lodge, Lewisham, London.
- 2425.—The Ecclesburne Lodge, Duffield, in the County of Derby.
- 2426.—The Wood Green Lodge, Wood Green, London.
- 2427.—The Hampden Lodge, St. Pancras, London.

On Saturday, the 30th ult., the consecration of a new Royal Arch Chapter in connection with the Guelph Lodge took place at the Red Lion Hotel, Leytonstone. The new Chapter starts under very favourable auspices, having an excellent habitation, a goodly body of founders, and a Companion to fill the office of first M.E.Z. who has distinguished himself in a similar capacity in another Essex Chapter. The consecration ceremony was performed by Comp. E. Letchworth G.S.E. The Companions, numbering nearly one hundred, subsequently dined together under the genial presidency of Comp. W. Shurmur.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Impurities of the Blood.—To ensure health it is absolutely necessary that the fluids and solids of the human body should be kept free from those impurities which are continually getting admission into the system by erroneous living, unwholesome atmosphere, or disordered stomach. The only safe and certain way to expel all impurities is to take Holloway's Pills, which have the power of cleansing the blood from all noxious matters, and at the same time removing any irregularities which their presence may have already produced in any organ. Holloway's Pills expel all humours which taint or impoverish the blood, which they purify and invigorate, and give general tone. They are applicable to all alive—young or old, robust or delicate.

PROVINCIAL GRAND LODGE OF WIGTOWN AND KIRKCUDBRIGHT.

THE Provincial Grand Lodge of Freemasons of Wigtownshire and Kirkcudbrightshire was resuscitated on the 10th inst., in the Masonic Hall, Stranraer. Brother John Graham, of Broadstone, Provincial Grand Master of Glasgow presided, and the meeting was largely attended by delegates from the Provinces. The Provincial Grand Lodge having been opened, then received the following deputation from the Grand Lodge, viz.:—Bros. the Grand Master Mason of Scotland, the Right Hon. the Earl of Haddington; Sir John C. Dalrymple Hay, Bart., James Dalrymple Duncan Grand Warden, Charles Baxter Grand Senior Deacon, R. J. Jamieson President of the Board of Grand Stewards, J. Christie Grand Junior Deacon, R. Torry Past Provincial Grand Secretary, and the Hon. Hew Hamilton Dalrymple Provincial Grand Master elect of Wigtown and Kirkcudbright. The deputation was received with Masonic honours, and the Grand Master the Earl of Haddington then ascended the throne, and the Provincial Grand Master, having insured and conformed to the necessary charges and regulations, was duly installed Provincial Grand Master of Wigtown and Kirkcudbright. The Earl of Haddington then addressed the Provincial Grand Master, and also gave a word of warning and advice to the Provincial Grand Lodge. Brother Dalrymple P.G.M. then thanked the Grand Master for his attendance there that day, and for the kind words which he had spoken, and from which he was sure the Office Bearers of the Province would profit. He was glad to have the honour conferred upon him of being Provincial Grand Master of Wigtown and Kirkcudbright, and he assured them that his time and energies would be freely employed in endeavouring to reopen those dormant Lodges throughout the province, and to create a more vigorous and enthusiastic life among the Craft generally. The ceremony having been concluded, the Grand Lodge deputation withdrew, and the Provincial Grand Lodge was thereafter closed. The Provincial Grand Master provided a luncheon for the brethren in the King's Arms Hotel, at which Brother William Black, town clerk, and R.W.M. of Stranraer Kilwinning, No. 208, presided.

THE MYSTIC TIE.

There is a tie that binds us close—
In unity and love;
A tie that bids us firmly trust,
The Architect above.
A tie that others wot not of—
A tie both staunch and true—
That bids us ever steadfast be
As life we journey through.

This mystic tie is broad and long,
And yet, withal, so free,
It speaks of peace and hope and joy,
And tender amity.
It tells of bosoms fraught with bliss,
It whispers soft and low,
Of souls that will together cling
In pleasure and in woe.

It is a tie that the strongest,
Can never rend apart;
It is a tie that's deep engraven
In each Masonic heart.
A tie of the great hereafter—
A bond of quaint design—
An emblem of power and beauty—
A token and a sign.

CHAS. F. FORSHAW, LL.D.

Bradford.

Bro. J. Russell, J.P., of Gravesend, was installed as W.M. of the Erasmus Wilson Lodge, No. 1464, last Saturday.

The General Committee meeting of the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls was held on Thursday. The principal item of business was the election of House Committee, for which, contrary to the customs of the past, three new candidates had been nominated. The possible introduction of new blood was stoutly resented on the part of the old members, some of whom addressed themselves to the voters in forcible terms on the proposed innovation. The result, however, has proved that the Craft remains true to its old love, the former members of the Committee being re-elected by large majorities. The opposition has not done any harm. It has shown that the interests of the Institution are being watched, and it will doubtless arouse the Committeemen to even greater energy in the future than they have shown in the past. With the knowledge that inattention or apathy in the work may lead to the loss of a seat on the board we may be sure that the members of the Committee will not think of neglecting their duties.

Obituary.

BRO. GEORGE JOHNSON WILSON.

The death took place, on the 9th inst., at his residence in Bondgate, Darlington, of Bro. George Johnson Wilson, in his 84th year. Bro. Wilson was initiated on 25th April 1833, at the age of 25, at the Restoration Lodge, Darlington, which was then held at the Hat and Feather, by a veteran Mason, Bro. Henry Blackett, whose portrait, painted by Mr. William Bewicke, of Haughton-le-Skerne, was presented to the Lodge 29th November 1849, and subsequently exhibited in the Polytechnic Exhibition which was held for the benefit of the Mechanics' Institute in 1855. Bro. Wilson was the Master of the Restoration Lodge in 1835, 1843, and 1844, and again in 1857. He was appointed P.G.J.D. in 1835, and in 1846 was appointed P.G.D.C., which office he held until 1850, when he was made P.G.J.W. Upon the occasion of his Masonic jubilee, 25th April 1883, his portrait was presented to the Lodge by the brethren, and he was presented with a suit of Provincial Grand regalia to mark the respect and esteem entertained for him. He was one of the most regular attendants at the Restoration Lodge and at the Marquis of Ripon Lodge, of which he was also a member, until a very short period before his death. He was also a very zealous Royal Arch Mason, and was appointed M.E.Z. of the Vigilance Chapter in 1850, and subsequently was appointed P.G.A.S.

BRO. JOHN A. PAGE.

THIS prominent local Freemason expired, we regret to hear, at his residence, at Bishopston, on Thursday, the 12th inst. The deceased gentleman till recently carried on business for many years at 23 Bond Street, as stationer and printer, but he retired through failing health. He was initiated a member of the Beaufort Lodge over forty years ago, and subsequently became its Master. With the late Col. Taylor he took an active part in the formation of the Jerusalem Lodge, and remained a member till the time of his death. He also rendered valuable aid to Dr. Samuel Bryant in starting the Vale of Brisington Lodge, of which he was for a long time Secretary, and always took a warm interest in its work. He was a P.Z. in the Royal Arch, and had passed the chair in the Knight Templar degree and the Rose Croix. For considerably over twenty years he was Secretary to the Governors of the local Freemasons' Hall, and took an active part in the removal from Bridge Street and the purchase of the new hall. He was a man universally respected on account of his extreme kindness and the readiness with which he assisted juniors.

BRO. CAPT. C. T. MARSTON.

THE funeral of Captain C. T. Marston, of Poole, took place on the 12th instant at Longfleet Churchyard, and, in deference to the wishes of the relatives, it was of a semi-private character. The chief mourners were Mr. J. T. Marston (deceased's father), Mr. C. E. Marston (son), and Mr. W. Marston (brother). Deceased was a Freemason, and held a Provincial degree, and a number of the brethren of the Amity Lodge, No. 137, were present, as were also members of the Poole Corporation. The Poole and South-Western Licensed Victuallers' Association was represented by Mr. Short (President) and Mr. H. Carr Gibbs (Treasurer), and Major Rebbeck (Bournemouth Artillery), and Lient. Jennings (Poole Artillery), and others were also in attendance. The coffin, which was of polished oak, with massive brass furniture, bore the inscription:—"Charles Taylor Marston, Died 8th May, 1892, Aged 42 years." Masonic emblems followed the inscription. The coffin was covered with beautiful wreaths. The service was conducted by the Vicar of St. Mary's (Rev. W. O. Parish).

BRO. W. H. MARWOOD

The death is announced of Bro. W. H. Marwood, St. Hilda's-terrace, Whitby. The deceased was the principal of the well known firm of shippers, Messrs. T. Marwood and Sons, and was a P.M. of the local Lodge.

BRO. JOSEPH BARRON.

WE regret to have to announce the demise of Bro. Joseph Barron, one of the oldest and most esteemed tradesmen in Keswick. The deceased gentleman was one of the oldest members of the Greta Lodge, No. 1073, being initiated in the early years of the Lodge in Keswick.

The first number of our new contemporary, "The Morning," which appeared last Saturday, contained the following:—

A Freemason who died a few days ago in Paris, left his Masonic sash to an old friend by will. When at the point of death, however, he sent for a priest in order to confess, and receive absolution for his sins. On the priest's arrival in the room he observed the sash occupying a place of honour, and addressing himself to the servant, inquired "what that sacrilegious object was doing there?" and ordered her to throw it into the fire. The servant, convinced that unless the sash were burned here above, her master certainly would be destroyed by fire down below, complied with the ecclesiastic's request. The disappointed heir has lodged a complaint with the police.

The decision of the Benevolent Institution, as communicated by the Treasurer of the Fund to the annual meeting held last week, to the effect that the accounts of the Charity will in future be sent out with the ballot papers, cannot fail to meet with general approval. The Benevolent Institution is in such a position as to be able to face any criticism levelled against its financial transactions, and no good can possibly accrue from keeping the monetary affairs in a semi-secret fashion. If there is any room for improvement there is no reason to keep back the starting of it, while if there is no cause for grumbling many will be satisfied who have hitherto regarded the affairs with something akin to doubt.

In connection with the Blackpool Lodge, No. 1476, the installation of Bro. James Anderson S.W. as Worshipful Master by Bro. T. Bickerstaffe W.M., and investiture of Officers, took place, on the 10th instant, at the Clifton Arms Hotel, Blackpool. Mr. Harling catered for the banquet, and after the business was over the usual toasts were given.

Lodge Dundas, No. 1255, at their annual meeting on the 16th instant, at the Freemasons' Hall, Plymouth, elected Bro. W. H. Botterell W.M., and re-elected Brothers S. J. Hearle Treasurer, S. B. Harvey Representative at Committee of Petitions, Jno. Hammond Charity Steward, and W. H. Phillips Tyler.

The meetings of the Westbourne Lodge of Instruction, No. 733, will be held at the Red House Hotel, St. John's Wood Road, N.W., on and after Monday, the 30th instant, at 8 p.m.

In consequence of the Bank Holiday the June meeting of the Council of the Boys' School will not be held till the 11th proximo.

A pleasing ceremony took place at the Masonic Hall, Ipswich, on Wednesday, the 11th instant, when the Worshipful Master (Brother W. J. Whitehead) was the recipient of a handsome illuminated address and Algerian onyx clock. The Senior Warden (Bro. W. H. Cook), in making the presentation, spoke in high terms of the W.M. The clock, which bore the following inscription:—"Presented by the Officers and brethren of St. Luke's Lodge of Freemasons, No. 225, to Bro. W. J. Whitehead Worshipful Master, on the occasion of his marriage, April 1892,"—was supplied by Messrs. Benson and Son, of London.

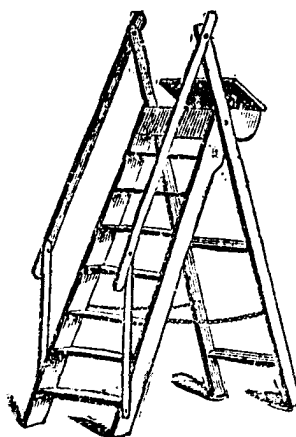

In order to show their esteem for Bro. Thomas Hicks P.M. P.P.G.J.W., likewise their appreciation of the services he has rendered, not only to their Lodge, but to Freemasonry in general, the members of Lodge Duke of Cornwall, No. 1529, have presented him with a Past Master's jewel of solid gold. The presentation was made in an eloquent speech by Bro. E. F. Whitley P.M., at the Lodge meeting on Wednesday, the 11th inst., and Bro. Hicks made a most appropriate reply. After the meeting the members, together with several visitors from Truro and other Lodges, sat down to a very nice supper at the Red Lion Hotel.

BEECHAM'S TOOTH PASTE.

Will recommend itself; it is efficacious, economical, cleanses the teeth, perfumes the breath, removes tartar, and prevents decay. It is composed of the best-known ingredients for neutralising the acids of the mouth, preventing all deleterious deposits upon the teeth (which cause them to decay and become loose), and the CURE of spongy or unhealthy gums, and is a pleasant and reliable dentifrice. The loss of the Teeth is soon followed by ill-health.

BEECHAM'S TOOTH PASTE is put up in collapsible tubes, perfectly air-tight, and so adjustable that no waste need occur; the packages are pretty for the toilet table, and most convenient for the travelling bag. They are sold everywhere for ONE SHILLING each.
